

Please withdraw the petition by the Consumer Banking Association, that would allow them to call we consumer's at any time. Two days ago a lending company called me 15 times, and wouldn't identify themselves until I identified myself. I felt invaded and treated as if I was a citizen of a totalitarian regime.